Activities: Long time Maui Boy and a person that can be counted on during the good and bad times. Being an avid surfer, fisherman and diver I try my best to blend these activities with family and friends. Most weekends you can find me in the water. I am Involved in so many activities that I have a hard time limiting my self to a few. If asked I rarely say no. Real estate is my passion. I have made a career making sure that my friends are all homeowners. Every time I am involved in a deal I always remember that this is THE most important deal so it has to be perfect — I love my job.
